This unique tour features five of Melbourne's famous Sand Belt Courses, including Alister MacKenzie's 1926 Royal Melbourne's West Links ranked as Australia's # one golf course and # 5 in Golf Digest's two hundred international in 2018. Other scheduled Sand Belt courses are rarely ranked far behind Royal Melbourne in fame. A short flight to Tasmania, Australia's Island State will provide an extraordinary and exciting golfing finale to the tour on Barnbogle's iconic Dunes and Farms Courses. The tour is developed for a party of eight golfers (however it can be increased to twelve) golfing and non-golfing spouses are welcome to join the tour and can enjoy Melbourne's local sightseeing and interesting things to do; and there are many. On arrival in Melbourne after a day lost in flight, we will check into to our lodging at the Victoria Golf Club. You will have the option of resting after the long journey or playing the fabulous Victoria Course followed by dinner at the club. The following day we will enjoy playing with members of the Victoria Golf Club. Local limo and taxi services will handle land transfer to and from golf clubs at both destinations. Participants should arrange their own international air to include the suggested domestic flights stated above. Please see the following page for tour terms and other details.

From its founding in 1903, the Victoria Golf Club and its revision by Alister Mackenzie has weaved a rich tapestry of golf history as site of many men's and women's Australian Open Championships as well as PGA and Australian Masters Championships. Its reputation as a world championship golf destination is secure for ever. On your visit expect hospitality equal to the course, Victoria's stately, three floor, fully air conditioned clubhouse exudes comfort and a welcoming, congenial atmosphere. The Clubhouse has fifteen comfortably appointed rooms, offering views of the course, each with full on-suite facilities. Add first class dining and attentive care in every area the magnificent club house and a warm welcome from the membership, and you will find no better local residential accommodation.

Is it wise to say that Tasmania's convict history is finally overshadowed by the birth of Barnbogle Golf's two outstanding golf courses? The Dunes by Doak and Clayton and Coore and Crenshaw's Farms described as creations in heaven, are now recognized as Australia's top Public Golf destination. Both courses located amidst the giant sand dunes along Anderson bay on Bass Straights, have quickly reached recognition on the world's "Top 25 Course list. The Lodge at Lost Farm offers stylish accommodations with the unique addition of a sliding glass wall between beds for more privacy. Expect local produce as the premium attraction to dine at the Lost Farm Restaurant.
